

Unit 4: Drama

Big Question Vocabulary—3

The Big Question: Do our differences define us?

Discrimination is often a result of people not having enough knowledge about others who appear different. Open dialogue can usually help people understand one another and can help people build tolerance and mutual respect.

assimilated: absorbed into the main cultural group conformity: behavior that is within the accepted rules of a society or a group and is the same as that of most other people differences: the quality or condition of being unlike or dissimilar individuality: characteristics or qualities that distinguish one person from other people similarity: having a likeness or a resemblance to something else or someone else

DIRECTIONS: Newcomers to your school are feeling excluded. Write a proposed set of guidelines that tell your fellow students how newcomers should be treated at school. Use all of the vocabulary words.
