

Unit 1: Short Stories

Big Question Vocabulary—1

The Big Question: Is conflict necessary?

When conflicts are discussed in a friendly, constructive way, sometimes we may begin to see the other side and to learn something.

amicably: acting in a friendly or peaceful way appreciate: to understand how important or valuable something is argument: a situation in which people disagree, often angrily

articulate: to express what you are thinking or feeling differences: disagreements or controversies

DIRECTIONS: Think of or invent a conflict that got resolved in a positive way. Write each step of the conflict using the vocabulary words. (For example, Step I could be Jason and I argued because he was late and kept me waiting.)
